ALI STE VEDELI? did you know?

Januar se že bliža koncu, zato želimo deliti nekaj zanimivih dejstev o tem mesecu. Ime januar izvira iz rimskega boga Janusa, znanega kot varuh vrat in prehodov, ki simbolizira začetke in konec. Januarja predstavlja nagelj, ki je eden najbolj skromnih, a očarljivih cvetov, znan po svojih nežnih listih in številnih osupljivih barvah. Poleg tega je januar popoln mesec za smučanje. S svojimi zimskimi čudesi in snežnimi pokrajinami ponuja izjemne pogoje za ljubitelje tega športa. Tako da, če ste navdušeni smučar ali pa samo iščete čarobnost zimskega meseca, je januar odličen čas za obisk gora.

January is drawing to a close, we wanted to share some fun facts about this month. January was named for the Roman god Janus, recognized as the guardian of gates and doorways, symbolizing both beginnings and endings. The month of January is associated with the carnation. The carnation, one of the most unassuming yet charming flowers, is renowned for its delicate petals and a plethora of stunning colors. Additionally, January is the perfect month for skiing. With its winter wonders and snowy landscapes, it provides exceptional conditions for enthusiasts of this sport. So, whether you're an avid skier or just seeking the magic of the winter month, January is an excellent time to explore the mountains.

KVAŠEN 'KNEDL' Germknödel

V kolikor ste ljubitelj smučanja, morate poskusiti pravo avstrijsko kulinarično doživetje na Pohorju - Kvašen 'Knedl'.

Germknödel, kot ga imenujejo Avstrijci, je prava poslastica na smučiščih. Čeprav je znana kot sladica, jo mnogi Avstrijci uživajo kot glavno jed. V Hotelu Arena pa dodajamo svoj edinstven pečat tej tradicionalni jedi - naš kvašen 'Knedl' je napoljen z okusno domačo borovničevom marmelado in prelit z vanilijevim kremom.

For ski enthusiasts, a visit to Pohorje is not complete without indulging in the authentic Austrian culinary experience - Germknödel. Known as a dessert, Austrians often enjoy it as a main course. The secret to this fluffy dumpling lies in the yeast, which is why it is also called "kvašen cmok." At Hotel Arena, we add our unique twist to this traditional dish. Our Germknödel is filled with delicious homemade blueberry jam and topped with vanilla cream.
